Project Description

By integrating business rules and constraint programming techniques, this project enables data centre administrators to diagnose and resolve capacity deficiency problems by recommending optimal utilization of hardware resources including disks, CPU, memory, and networking devices.

Project Coordinator

Dr. Jacob Feldman, Dr. James Little