

CP-Inside

Project Description

This project aims to develop the architecture and software to embed constraint-based decision tools in successful commercial software. The project will also provide a platform for researchers to develop and integrate their ideas on constraint programming.

Project Coordinator

Prof. Eugene C. Freuder and Dr. James Little