

TRIO

Timber Recovery using enhanced Information and Optimisation

Project Description

This project will deliver a set of decision support tools which will provide optimal cutting and allocation information on how to manage the forest resources. These tools are based on innovative new forest scanning technology which provides enhanced data on the standing timber.

Project Coordinator

Dr. James Little

Project Partners

Enda Keane, Treemetrics